1. Deborah Atno-Shelton-Chair called the meeting to order, welcoming all present. Chris Ruble-Affiliate: Liberty Point thanked the CCCA LHRC for their timely response regarding the need for a program review for one of his residents. Maintaining client confidentiality and resident anonymity, he briefly summarized the program as it was initially presented earlier this year and requested that the CCCA LHRC consider allowing Liberty Point to reinstitute the restrictive program which addressed self-soiling, noting its previous success. He reiterated that the program was voluntary for the resident, that it was reviewed at every Liberty Point treatment team meeting, and that it would be supervised by the clinician and the clinical team.

Action: The CCCA LHRC approved the program as ongoing, noting the carefulness required to maintain services in the best interest of the child including treatment with dignity. The CCCA LHRC also requested that weekly updates be given to the CCCA LHRC Chair and the Advocate when the program is implemented.

2. Ms. Atno-Shelton accepted the request for the re-appointment of CCCA LHRC member Wendy Young.

Action: The CCCA LHRC approved Ms. Young's reappointment and will forward the recommendation to the SHRC.
